MORE URBAN RENEWAL INFORMATION

Site operations dominated the Urban Renewal scene on June 30, 1958—the end of the Federal fiscal year—for the first time in the program's history. Urban Renewal Commission Richard L. Steiner said today in reporting on the 543 Federally-assisted projects now under way in 328 communities across the Nation.

"More than half this total, 276 projects, had reached the stage of actual execution by June 30," Mr. Steiner said. "By execution I mean the point where such site activities as land acquisitions, relocation of families, demolition of structures, and new construction have begun or are beginning. In addition, the seven projects completed and off the Federal books during fiscal 1958 brought the total of completions to 10.

"This means that American communities are tearing out more slums, rehabilitating more dwellings, relocating more people, erecting more new buildings, and installing more new public facilities than ever before in the nine-year history of the urban renewal program," he continued. "The experience accumulated by our cities and the Urban Renewal Administration in the early years of the program has much to do with the quickened pace of on-site work. A real momentum has been achieved. And I believe the momentum will increase."

The following table points up the position of 1958 as the fiscal year of greatest achievement thus far in urban renewal:

	1956	1957	1958
New projects	100	92	136
Projects approved	27	56	109
Urban Planning Assistance
Fiscal 1958 also showed a new high for activity in URA's urban planning assistance program. The 72 projects approved during the year compare with 51 approved in 1957 and the total of 32 in 1956 and 1955 combined. The $2.8 million in Federal grants approved for 1958 projects was about $900,000 more than for 1957 projects, and approximately $1.8 million more than for 1955 and 1956 combined. At the end of 1958, under this program, 715 small communities and 52 metropolitan and regional areas were receiving aid. The urban planning assistance program provides for grants to State planning agencies for making aid available to communities of less than 25,000 which frequently lack funds and personnel for urban planning work. A grant may total up to half the cost of the work involved. Such grants are also available to official State, metropolitan, or regional planning agencies for planning work covering metropolitan and urban regional areas.

OFFICER FULLER THINKS "BAT IN HAT WORTH TWO IN BEDROOM"

At approximately 9:30 p.m. on August 5, Officer George Fuller received a hurried call from the home of Simon Cutter on Church St., stating that as Mrs. Cutter was about to retire, she discovered a bat soaring about her bedroom.

The report took Officer Fuller to the scene where after making a few "missing passes" at the intruder with his hat, he captured the frightened flyer and sent him on his way.

The Board has set the afternoon and evening of August 31, 3 p.m. to 9 p.m. as a time when the entire community may visit the new building for their inspection. A special invitation is being extended to all the people of Wilmington and the surrounding communities to come and look around the building.

Wilmington's Fourth Fatal Accident Of Year

For two consecutive years, our town has received "safety plaques" from the Registry of Motor Vehicles for having gone the twelve month period with no fatal traffic accidents. However, with 1958 only two-thirds passed, we have already experienced our fourth fatal accident of the year.

Shortly after 7:15 p.m. on August 6, Deborah DeFelic, 6 year old daughter of Selectmen and Mrs. DeFelic of Commonwealth Ave., was pronounced dead on arrival at St. John's Hospital.

The accident which took little Debby's life occurred on Lowell St., near her home when she was struck down by a vehicle being operated by John Hume of 418 Parkway, Revere.

The accident was investigated by Officers Dolan, Balestrieri, Harvey and James Manning of the Registry of Motor Vehicles.

Fitzgerald Fuel Granted Permit

Following a hearing Monday evening at Town Hall, the selectmen voted to grant a fuel oil storage license to the Fitzgerald Fuel Co. of Winchester, who recently opened an office in Wilmington.

Nicholas Fitzgerald, president of the company, told the board members that the underground storage tanks he was asking to use had been licensed and in use from 1946 to 1948 by Grant's Oil Service. The four tanks, located in the rear of Bill and Mel's Service Station at the corner of Shawheen Ave. and Main St., hold 10,000 gallons each.

Only objector was Anthony Frasio of Main St. who explained that he was the only resident near enough to be affected. He said that he felt the odor and the danger, added to those of the gas station, constituted a hazard.

The selectmen, in reaching their decision, agreed that since the tanks are located in a general business zone, and had been licensed previously, the license should be granted.

St. Dorothy's Announcements

Friday is the feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin. It is a holy day of obligation on which all of the faithful are bound to attend Mass. Masses at St. Mary's will be at 5:45, 7 and 9 a.m., and an evening Mass will be celebrated at 7:30. At St. Dorothy's Hall, Masses will be at 8 and 10 a.m.

Confessions will be heard on Thursday evening at St. Mary's at 7:30.

Because the feast falls on a Friday, the faithful are not bound to observe the law of abstinence. They may eat meat on that day.

Sunday in Communion Day for all the girls of the parish.

The annual chicken barbecue will take place this week on Saturday at the church grounds (Thompson's Grove). There will be three sittings, 4, 5, and 6 p.m. Children's tickets will be 25c. This promises to be the better than last year even though all were delighted at that time. Prize books are now available for a movie camera projector and screen. These may be had by calling Mr. or Mrs. George Szadia who are in charge of the affair. They may also be procured at the rectory or at Tattersall's Store. It is hoped that at least one member of each family will be present at this dinner. The drawing will take place at 6:30 p.m.

The priests of the parish are grateful to the blitz committee for the proceeds of last Tuesday evening's party. Another party in this series will be held at the hall next Tuesday evening.

They are also grateful to Mrs. Sarah Mullin and her committee for the proceeds of last Friday evening's whist. This Friday evening, Mrs. Anthony Meades and her committee will conduct the whist party at St. Dorothy's Hall.

The priests of the parish are also grateful to Con O'Brien and those who have helped him for the repairs to the side entrance at St. Mary's.

The Novena in honor of our Lady of the Miraculous Medal is held each Monday evening at St. Mary's at 7:45.

Student altar boys will meet at St. Mary's on Monday evening at 7:00.

On August 8 at 3:35 p.m. the ambulance was summoned to the scene of an accident on Main St. in which Mrs. Daisy Damora was injured. The ambulance was not needed. At 4:20 p.m. Ancal Land, 31 Salem St., Mrs. Land and two children were taken to Dr. MacDougal's office for treatment. The four were victims of an accident which occurred at Main and Harnden St.

On August 9 at 3:50 p.m. the ambulance was summoned to the home of Mrs. Ethier on Park St. to take her sister to St. John's Hospital.

On August 10 at 1:41 p.m. James Tsouprakas of East 102 St. New York; Esther Sloan and Pauline Matus, both of Dorchester, were taken to St. John's Hospital following an accident at Shawheen Ave. and Main St.

MAN OF VISION

The 175th anniversary of the birthday of Simon Bolivar will be celebrated July 24th. The Great Liberator, who freed six Latin American countries from Spanish rule, was born in Caracas, Venezuela, in 1783. He established the first constitutional governments in Latin America and was the first to set forth ideas for Pan-American cooperation and solidarity, in calling the Congress of Panama in 1826.

Although the Treaty of Confederation signed at the Congress did not endure, Bolivar's ideal of individual security for the American republics, through the fair practice of international justice, has taken concrete form in the Organization of American States.

In recognition of this great man, the United States Post Office is issuing two stamps in denominations of 4 cents and 8 cents as part of its "Champions of Liberty" series. The same day a commemorative ceremony will be held at the Simon Bolivar statue in Central Park in New York City. In Colombia, Bolivia, Peru and Panama — countries which he liberated — Bolivar's birthday will be marked with special events. In his native Venezuela and in Ecuador it is a national holiday.

As an educational service, Creole Petroleum Corporation, a United States company and Venezuela's largest oil producer, has published a full-color "Historical Map of the Life of Simon Bolivar." The map was prepared in cooperation with the Bolivarian Society of the United States, Inc. It is obtainable free of charge from Creole Petroleum Corporation, Dept. R-9, 1250 Avenue of the Americas, New York 20, N. Y.

The Withams have four other children, Stanley Jr., Janet, Dale and Eugene.

like this when

I was a romper gal.

Of course, in those days we

Miss Joan Harris of 835 Main St., was tended a wedding shower on Aug. 1, at the River Pines Improvement Association Hall, Billerica.

Between 50 and 60 of her friends and relatives attended. Music was supplied by the bride to be's sister, Sandra, and her nephew who played the piano and guitar to entertain the guests.

Many lovely and practical gifts were received by Miss Harris. Refreshments were served and a good time was had by all.

Mrs. Sadie Geldard of Cook
Ave., is enjoying a few weeks vacation at Old Orchard Beach, Me.
It is expected she will return within the next week.

Sea Explorer's Need Help:
The Sea Explorer's held a meeting on Thursday, August 7, at the Methodist Church.

The adult leaders (Scouters), are in a desperate situation as they need more leaders to continue this fine organization. The young boys of this group will be greatly disappointed if this project they are working on should go flat.

Yes, they attempted to start the boat, batteries and all, but it didn't work. The diesel motor is in fine shape, but other difficulties have arisen.

Robert Sweet, on leave from the Navy was on hand to supervise the operation, and was very helpful with his experience from his training in the Navy. Incidentally, he was formerly a Sea Explorer himself. Now his younger brother William is one.

They intend to make another try at starting the motor again on Sunday or Monday. This is their appeal - WE NEED MORE AD-ULT LEADERS! Come on you fathers who have sons interested in boats. Even if they aren't.

Dogged Determination

ARLINGTON, VA. — Back in action despite two broken front legs, "Daylin's Tiny Tammy," a nine-month-old French poodle, tries walking again with the aid of splints. Tammy's older brother, 2½-year-old "Daylin's Shu-White," offers moral support.

Despite tremendous increases in timber demand, no acute timber shortages are likely says the U. S. Forest Service. This favorable condition in the nation's timber resources is due largely to the voluntary American Tree Farm System.

SCIENCE IN YOUR LIFE

Family Affair

Craving odd foods — say a dill pickle with a side order of strawberry ice cream — has come to be regarded as an expectant mother's privilege. More recently, it has been reported that some young mothers-to-be have been caught nibbling at pieces of coal. The women aren't the only ones afflicted. Imminent parenthood affects some men in strange ways, too.

In an Air Force study reported in the Armed Forces Medical Journal, one third of the expectant fathers demonstrated some kind of medical or emotional problem. Another third created unusual difficulties or committed offenses serious enough for court martial. Some of them showed irritability or anxiety, developed dizziness, headaches or stomach aches. Some even "ate enough for two" and others had morning sickness.

Not all husbands suffer in silence, it seems. A report in the Western Journal of Surgery, Obstetrics and Gynecology showed the drug Bonadonin cleared up nausea and vomiting in 61 of 65 mothers-to-be and one husband. The nervous father-to-be was cured of his "sympathy sickness" after taking Bonadonin for three days. His wife's symptoms were controlled within a week.

In addition to the morning sickness symptoms, expectant fatherhood can make some men less efficient, drive others to bad behavior, according to the Air Force doctor. He felt his investigation bolstered the idea that expectant fatherhood makes a good man better and a bad man worse.

Check And Double Check—Dye It!

Color shows off lovely silver and china at its very best. Dyeing and the use of color in relation to setting a pretty table was one of the homemaking tests in the "Mrs. America" contest, held recently in Fort Lauderdale, Fla. The 49 state and District of Columbia finalists were required to dye a white tablecloth and napkins for the Rit dye event. Each contestant chose an all-purpose dye color to coordinate with china, sterling silver and flowers she would use in the table-setting competition. Dyeing was done in washing machines.

You may have old table linens yellowed from storage and disuse. With dye and your washing machine it will be easy to reclaim and use them—like your sterling—to set a pretty table every day. And did you know you can dye color over color? Plaids, prints and stripes can be dyed to create striking combinations, often expensive and/or hard to find. As examples, dye a red and white plaid tablecloth pink, or dye a blue and white pattern Kelly green for two of today's most popular combines.

There are forty-five permanent exhibit buildings on the grounds of the Eastern States Exposition, West Springfield, Massachusetts, connected by five miles of paved roads.

MIDSUMMER NIGHT'S DREAMING of the pleasant sort is assured for the wearer of this Summer's saucy new sleepwear. For these torrid nights the emphasis is on brevity and sheer fabrics and the design inspiration comes from the cute low-waisted, pleated skirt, "Charleston" costumes of the 20s. A typical good-night scene is shown here. Mother and daughter wear chemise bloomer-nightie sets of no-iron cotton batiste.

Chemise-One Towel

WOULD YOU BELIEVE that this attractive chemise type beach poncho is made from one large size 24"x48" bath towel, with pockets of matching washcloths? In this case, the towel is deep green, and is bound with wide bias tape in white. To make this beach poncho, fold towel border to border, suggests The Cannon Homemaking Institute. Cut a 10" head opening in the center and a 5" slit at back of neck. After fitting jacket, mark off waistline and sew a double row of stitching to form slot for inserting elastic. Use bias tape for ties at back of neckline.

LOOKING FOR 1800 WIDOWS

William J. Blake, Manager of the Veterans Administration regional office, Boston said today that the Veterans Administration is trying to locate an estimated 1500 widows of Confederate veterans believed to be entitled to federal pensions.

Blake said that this is the first time that these widows are eligible for VA pensions under recently signed Public Law 85-425. The new law also provides pensions for the two living Confederate veterans, who have already been contacted by VA representatives and assist in filing their claims.

The widows, however, present another problem, William J. Blake, Manager explained. Only those southern states which pay similar benefits have partial rolls of Confederate beneficiaries. The United States has no official records on these beneficiaries and, since the benefits are not automatic, the widows will have to fill out application forms which may be obtained in person or by letter from any VA office.

The two Confederate veterans are eligible for the same pension benefits as would any living Union counterparts. $101.59 a month, or 135.45 if physically helpless or blind. Widows under 70 are entitled to $40.64 and over 70 to $65 a month. If the widow was married to the veteran during the Civil War service, she is entitled to $75 a month.

FORT DEVENS AIRPORT GETS NEW LOOK SOON

New construction at Fort Devens airport, calculated to improve landing and take-off conditions, is expected to start soon, according to Post Engineers. Bids were opened on June 12th. In July 1957 Congress allocated the sum of $55,000 for improvements which will include

GOOD GROOMING is more important than ever during summer months, and this beauty-conscious miss has discovered an unbeatable combination—a tub full of warm water, a generous helping of scented suds, and a handy selection of beauty brushes with "Tyne" nylon.

Lukewarm tub is relaxing and refreshing; stiff-bristled nail brushes help to keep hands and nails spotless, and soft-bristled complexion and body brushes offer gentle stimulation and thorough cleansing. Whether Bristles are soft or stiff, brushes with "Tyne" keep their liveliness and resilience, dry quickly, and offer long-lasting economy.

destruction and disposal of 1 existing building, erection of a new hangar, installation of a water and drainage system, provisions for fire protection, installation of several fuel and gas tanks and pumps, runways for the heliport and installation of electricity, including night lighting.

Certain air traffic hazards exist where an airport is used for both rotary-wing and fixed-wing aircraft, according to experts. The new construction is planned to eliminate such dangers.

Man-Made Muscle: Hope For Withered Hands

Withered and crippled hands of 250,000 Americans may possibly do their day's work again with the help of an artificial "muscle" created from oil-based nylon. This spectacular development is a foot-long tube of nylon thread, woven into a spiral pattern. It lies along the forearm with the forward end hooked into a spring that activates an arm-and-finger brace. The back end is piped to a cylinder of carbon-dioxide gas. Any good remaining muscle can open the valve which contracts the nylon muscle and clenches the hand. Artificial muscles are said to be almost 100 per cent efficient compared to about 40 percent for real muscles. The oil industry is a rich source of raw materials which medical science taps to bring new life and new hope to the ill and physically handicapped.

IF JOINTS of your wooden outdoors furniture have loosened it is probably because the screw holes have become so enlarged that the screws no longer have a firm hold. Remove the screws and pack the holes with Plastic Wood. Re-set the screws after the Plastic Wood has hardened over night. If screws have become badly rusted use new screws. The screws will go in more easily if a little soap is rubbed on the threads.

Before using a stepladder in front of a door that opens toward you, lock the door. If someone should open the door while you are on the ladder you could get a bad fall. No matter how high you want to reach, never stand any higher on the ladder than the second step from the top.

Suggestions To Follow

Through research and study, it has been shown that (1) smoked meats are best stored tightly wrapped, in the refrigerator; (2) steaks and chops should be salted after browning; (3) all meats should be cooked at low temperatures; (4) frozen meats should not be refrozen after they are completely defrosted; (5) meat should be carved across the grain.

TERRY TOWELING IS IN THE SWIM. Want a recipe for warm-weather comfort? Best way to keep cool, during July's torrid days, is to DUNK! Dunk in the backyard pool, dunk in the farm's old "swimmin' hole", dunk in the lake, dunk in the ocean. Keep dunking—keep cool! For protection against the sniffles, for easy, effortless drying-off give every member of the family some garments made of terry toweling. They're becoming, comfortable, and eminently practical—their pristine white sets off a deepening coat of tan, and to keep them white you only have to dunk them in the automatic washer. Popular terry fashions this year include something for everybody—suits for tots, parkas for dad and the boys, play suits for mom and the girls, wrap-around towel for dad, dusters for mom.

Selectmen Take Action On Many Items

A motion was made Monday evening by Selectman Charles Black and seconded by Chairman Frank Hagerty, that the TM and the postmaster of the Wilmington post-office confer on the advisability of having the RFD mail boxes on Lowell St. moved to the opposite side of the street, where the majority of the homes are located.

An application from Bob Evans to sell loam removed from the right of way of Rte. 28 was granted.

Mr. Black motioned that the Civil Defense sign on Town Hall be removed or replaced. Mr. Hagerty agreed that it needed refashioning, but said that it should not be removed.

A letter from Ernest Woodside of Aldrich Road regarding a claim by Mr. Woodside that since the installation of town water his driveway was below street level, and requests to have it fixed had not been effective, was referred to the town engineer.

Selectman Donald Kidder informed the board that certain unregistered pieces of equipment being used to construct the new Rte. 28 near his home were using a portion of Woburn St.

The TM was instructed to ask the building inspector about the legality of the cement block wall being constructed between the Wilmington Grain and Building Materials Co. and Altman's.

A motion to extend the sincere sympathy of the Board to Selectman Nicholas DeFelice on the loss of his daughter was voted.

A motion to extend the thanks of the Board to the young people of the Congregational Church for their care of the old cemetery grounds was voted.

Mr. Hagerty again asked that the grass at the Walker School be cut.

A hearing was set for Aug. 25 on the request of the telephone company to construct further facilities in the town. Mr. Black informed the board that it is impossible at present to obtain a new telephone.

The Wilmington Diner, holders of a common victuaries license, were found not to need an additional license to stay open on Sunday, as they had requested.

Edward Dickinson of Edgewood Rd., Tewksbury, was denied a junk dealers license.

A letter was received from Ralph Babcock of Woburn St., regarding heavy trucking on his home. The letter was referred to the Town Council.

Mr. Hagerty asked again that a grader be sent to Fairmeadow Rd., to level off the street pending its building.

The Town Warden will be asked to meet with the board at its next meeting to discuss a tree replacement program due to the loss of many elm trees to disease.

Mr. Kidder asked that the Chief of Police be requested to see that Woburn St. be patrolled due to the speed of cars using the road during the rush hours since the advent of new industry in the town.

Mr. Hagerty spoke again of the seriousness of the bridge situation, and asked again for signs to warn trucks of the load limit, particularly on the Eames St. bridge.

The town dog pound on the Canales property was praised by the selectmen, but the lack of a contract was denied. Mr. Hagerty said, "I'm amazed that no contract was effected by the former TM."

Mr. Kidder asked that the TM be asked if any money is on deposit by the firm building Rte. 28 for the repair of streets that may be affected by the use of their trucks.

Board of Appeals decisions dated Feb. 14 regarding variances granted John Donahue to build on non-conforming lots on Cypress St., were received by the Board.

TALK OF THE TOWN

By HANK FILIPPONE

Eddie Sargent is having his hands full trying to hold onto the flashers that are on the wooden horse along the side of the road on Nichols Street, where the water department is installing water mains. It seems that the lights are rented at so much per day and someone is taking them down. Why anyone should do it is a good question, but there you are, and the lights are gone.

It has been always understood that a man doesn't cry, but I almost disproved that saying last Thursday night when I attended the wake services for the daughter of Nicky DeFelice. I was holding my own until I looked into Nicky's eyes and saw the wells of tears. Having been around quite a bit, I thought that I had seen everything, but I tell you -- dear reader, I was heartbroken. The whole town mourns with you, Nicky and Louise.

You may look forward to a completely new look for this paper soon. THINGS TO DO THESE NEXT FEW WEEKS -- is to attend the big Lobster Cook-out at Memorial Park, Sunday, August 24. Get down to Town Hall and vote in the primaries. Get your applications for street betterments in. Obtain your applications for Veterans Disability Abatement on Real Estate -- and of course, get ready for the opening of school. (wonder where the summer went?)

Speaking of how times flies, read this. If you've been crying a bit, have hard work and never get any day off, look at it this way.

An Airforce serviceman at the Bedford Airbase came up with this beauty. There are 365 days a year. You are entitled to 30 days leave a year and have the privilege of a 3-day pass every six weeks. That makes 56 days, leaving a total of 309 days.

There are approximately 16 National Holidays and 104 Saturdays and Sundays. That narrows it down to 189 days. You sleep about eight hours a day, and spend another eight hours off duty, which totals 126 days of your year, leaving Uncle Sammy with 63 days.

If you take an hour off a day for cokes and/or coffee, that accounts for another 15 days which leaves 48.

52 half workdays are set aside for physical training and educational lectures and that leaves 22 days. 12 are paydays and you know how much work gets done then. That leaves a total of 10 days.

Statistics show that the average man spends 2 days in the dental clinic and another 7 undergoing medical treatment. This narrows it down to a grand total of 1 day, and if you can't find some way to goof off for that 1 day, you sure are hurting.

All I can say is that the gent who thought this one up found his way to use up the one remaining day.

According to Minor Haskell, Chairman of the committee for the series of dances being held at the Andover Country Club in benefit of the Wilmington Hospital Fund, there will be in excess of a thousand dollars soon. This is a pretty good start for the project and the more people who support the program the easier it will be to keep going.

That silly rumor that has been going around town is not worth repeating.

Ambulance Discussed By Selectmen

A request from the fire department for additional funds for operation of the town ambulance brought about a discussion of the use of the ambulance Monday evening.

A letter was received by Lt. George Cushing of the fire department asking the selectmen to transfer $500 to the wage and salary account, and $150 to the expense account for the vehicle. The wages are needed for men used to cover the fire station when firemen are called to man the ambulance.

Lt. Cushing reported that in 1956, 111 runs were made in the Jan. to July period; in 1957, 140 runs, and in 1958 180 runs have been made in the same period.

A discussion followed on the use of the ambulance, including the difficulty of determining when an actual emergency exists. Chairman of the Board Frank Hagerty reminded the members that he has asked repeatedly to have the Civil Defense ambulance maintained and housed, ready for use. Selectman Donald Kidder, a call fireman, said he did not believe the CD ambulance was acceptable to the fire chief for use by his men. Mr. Hagerty maintained that while it might not be safe for high speed, emergency driving, he believed it would serve to transfer patients to and from rest homes, etc., when speed was not a factor, and leave the regular ambulance on duty for emergency use.

The selectmen approved the transfer of funds.

Funeral Services For Deborah DeFelice

Deborah DeFelice, 6 year old daughter of Selectman and Mrs. Nicholas DeFelice of Commonwealth Ave., died by accident on Wednesday evening, Aug. 6. This was the couple's youngest child.

Besides her parents, "Debby" is survived by two sisters, Dorothy and Peggy and two brothers, Nicholas Jr. and Thomas. Funeral services were conducted at the McMahon Funeral Home on Saturday morning followed at 10 am by a Mass of the Angels, celebrated by Father Croke at St. Thomas Church. Father Croke was assisted by Monsignor Shea, former pastor of St. Thomas. Interment was in the family lot at Woodlawn Cemetery where traffic was directed by a detail of local police officers. Funeral arrangements were under the direction of Joseph B. McMahon.

Wilmington Town Democratic Committee News

Well, the registration drive for the primaries is over and a load of thanks to Ted Cantrell and Eddie McLaughlin for an excellent job well done. Friday alone saw 144 people registering. Ted now is concentrating on the primary vote and I'm sure it will be a worthwhile endeavor.

The cook-out is drawing near and the tickets are well distributed. Final returns are to be made August 19, and there will be no tickets sold at the gate. I repeat that there will be no tickets sold after the 19th. Anyone planning to attend and who does not have their ticket reserved will not be eligible for the door prizes. The reason for this system is due to the cost of the lobster and the fact that the children will be eating free of charge.

There will be a greased pole climbing contest, a blindfolded tug-of-war contest, rolling pin throwing, races and horseshoe pitching games. The recreation program will be under the supervision of Edward Curtis. Many of the candidates for local District, and State offices will be attending and will be introduced to the gathering. The park will be open at 8 a.m., so plan on getting there early. Bring your own folding chairs, tables, and nut crackers to cope with the lobster.

Tickets have been distributed to Woburn, North Reading, Reading, Billerica, Tewksbury, Lowell, Burlington, Cambridge and Somerville. This cook-out will be an affair to remember, so get on the ball and get your reservations now. After the big to-do, and protests that the billboard signs on Main Street were an eyesore, I notice that they carry the republican slogan. Oh well, why not? They need the boost.

Let every Democrat in Wilmington give our local candidate, Harold McKelvey, a vote on primary day.

Have any of you readers heard Chub Peabody speak? I attended a rally for him in Medford last Friday night and was favorably impressed by his evident sincerity and straight forwardness. If get up and go has anything to do with nomination, Chub Peabody will certainly be our next Attorney-General.

Ted - Here's the news you are interested in. January - 1958 showed a total registration of 4629 votes. As of August 10 - there are now 4841 - a total increase of 212. Your efforts in the drive certainly paid off.

Deviled Chicken Aflame
For fun and good eating--have a Blazing Barbecue on the patio or in the yard. Surprise your guests with Deviled Chicken Aflame--a continental favorite. The birds will be juicy, tender and hot. The recipe is so easy:

DEVILED CHICKEN AFLAME
3 broilers, each 1 1/2 to 2 lbs. 1/2 teaspoon powdered ginger
1/2 cup soft butter 1/2 teaspoon red pepper
1/4 cup each fine crumbs and flour 2 tablespoons dry red wine
1/2 teaspoon salt 2 tablespoons 7 Crown Blended Whiskey
1 teaspoon mustard (dry)

Prepare broilers for the grill and split into halves. Salt and pepper surface of the birds. Mix remaining ingredients to make a soft spread, adding a little additional whiskey if necessary. Spread over surface (inside and out) of each half bird. Grill slowly over hot coals until well done. Remove birds to flame proof platter. Heat an additional 1/2 cup of 7 Crown and pour over the birds; set aflame. Serve as flames die down. Serves 4 to 6.

Before flaming, remember to warm the liquor--this makes a quicker, more lasting flame.

While the birds slowly and succulently grill, serve refreshing drinks. Nothing cooler than a "Seabreeze" in tall chilled glasses. Pour 1 1/2 oz. Seagram's Golden Gin, add two or three ice cubes, and fill the glass with quinine water. A slice of lime or lemon makes this a delightful, summertime drink.

For other "spiced" recipes and delicious drink recipes, write to me--Seagram's Home Service Department, 375 Park Avenue, New York 22, N.Y.

First Aid Tip: Sterile Gauze Pads A Medicine Chest "Must"

Almost one-third of all wounds incurred in the home are too large to be covered by ordinary adhesive bandages. Yet many medicine cabinets lack the most reliable first-aid weapon that can be used in treating such injuries--the sterile gauze pad.

The fact is that most persons don't realize the vital need to use a sterile bandage as an underdressing for wounds. Knowing that practically all bandages are supplied in sterile form, they take it for granted that such a bandage is always sterile and ready for use in the home. This is not so; once a roll bandage is opened, for example, the unused portion that is stored away for future use is not protected against contamination from handling, dirt and bacteria. Therefore, once opened, it's no longer safe to use in direct contact with the wound.

One safe bandage that is guaranteed sterile until the very moment it is used--no matter how long it is stored in the medicine chest--is the STERIPAD sterile gauze square.

STERIPAD sterile gauze pads, which are made by Johnson & Johnson, are packed individually in envelopes, each of which has a double seal. This means that the pads are insured against contamination and are sterile whenever and wherever used. This is the only type of covering that should be used in direct application and removal of coagulated with a wound. The roll

Baby Boy For The Fogles

Mr. and Mrs. Duane Folgie of Eames St., announce the arrival of a son, Michael Eldon, on August 5, at St. John's Hospital. Honors are being shared by Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Peck, also of Eames St., and Mr. and Mrs. Folgie of South Carolina.

bandage should be used only over the sterile gauze pad to hold it in place. Adhesive tape can also be used for this purpose.

STERIPAD gauze pads come in several sizes, which makes it very convenient and easy to apply in self-treatment. Soft and gentle to raw and injured tissues, the gauze squares are excellent for protecting cuts, burns, and abrasions. Their softness and sterility make them ideal in the nursery--for applying ointments, lotions, and creams, as well as ointments--as well as for use as a compress and for washing eyes. And for adults, they have dozens of uses as a health and beauty aid, such as application and removal of cosmetics.

Are Psychiatry And Religion Enemies?

BY REV. JOHN J. LYNCH

Psychiatry and religion are not enemies; they work together. Psychiatrists have found that sincere religious convictions are a great help towards mental health. Priests and ministers of religion know that a healthy mind is necessary for a healthy religious outlook.

BUT RELIGION is not a substitute for psychiatry--any more than Freud. It is a substitute for surgery. Nor is psychiatry a substitute for religion. Psychiatry is a branch of medicine--not a religion.

To understand why some people confuse the relationship between religion and psychiatry, you must know something of the history of psychiatry.

SIGMUND FREUD (1856-1939) was the first explorer in the field of psychiatry. He thought he had found a substitute for religion. But like many a great explorer before and since (Columbus, for instance, thinking America as India), he failed to identify the new territory opened up by his genius and labor. Instead of finding a substitute for religion, he provided a helmsman for it.

Many psychiatrists today--ever thankful for the tools and techniques pioneered by Freud--see the true relation between psychiatry and religion. THUS, DR. S. G. JUNG, Freud's best known pupil, wrote, "Among all my patients over 35 years old there has not been one whose problem in the last resort was not that of finding a religious outlook on life."

And Dr. William C. Menninger, founder of the famous Menninger Clinic, agrees with Jung: "Christ Himself, centuries ago, laid down one of the principles of mental health that we now recognize as of paramount importance... For whosoever will save his life shall lose it, but whosoever will lose his life for My sake will save it. It is still a magnificent precept. If you can follow it, you will never live to make a date with a psychiatrist."

PSYCHIATRY only becomes the enemy of religion when it tries to act as a substitute for religion--by denying such truths as the existence of God, the nature of man (made in the image and likeness of God), and man's obligation to follow God's moral law.

In such a case, psychiatry is no longer a branch of medicine, but a false religion.
